

Anna Richards, Senior Manager, Programs and Events, Greater Akron Chamber

Anna grew up in Newark, Ohio, and Midland, Michigan. She attended the University of Dayton graduating with degrees in Marketing and Leadership.

Anna has worked across various industries including manufacturing, consumer products sales and marketing, Information Technology, and the non-profit sector. Throughout her career, Anna has worked to bring people together, to help them make connections, and to be better off than before they met.

Anna currently serves as a member of the Saint Rita School PTU Board, is an active member in ministries at Saint Patrick's Church in Kent and dedicates time to volunteering with the University of Dayton Cleveland Alumni Community.

Anna and her husband, Matt live in Stow with their two amazing sons, Joey and John. Outside of work you can find Anna on the slopes with Joey skiing or on the sideline of the field watching John play soccer.
